

Overview:

You will be a part of an award-winning unique model, this firm have been called a “hybrid” and “best of both” combining some of the best elements of traditional firms and fee-share firms.

You will have access to Marketing, PR and support from the off, as well as entering into a tailored process to ensure you are up and running on the firm’s systems from the day you start.

You have control over your client relationships, you decide who you work for, how you work and where you work, and you also decide what fee-arrangement best suits your client.

Why join this firm as a Consultant Partner?

- The firm is certified as a B-Corp
- Smaller group events for new joiners to meet each other
- Over 80 events taking place
- IT Team to provide your laptops, printer and scanners and deal with all of your daily IT enquiries
- The firm has a commitment to remain boutique and focus on quality, they have no desire to be the largest firm by partner numbers
- Paralegal and trainee support is also provided
- The partners work together as one, they are respectful, hierarchy free and promote an inclusive and collaborative working environment
- Strong finance support who are responsible for preparing client bills, Partner bills, transferring monies, paying invoices and helping with credit control.
- Strong compliance support who provide training to help ensure your knowledge is kept up to date and to ensure you are aware of any trends and regulatory issues affecting the legal sector
- Professional Indemnity Insurance, Business cards, Telephone answering system, Document Bundling (access to your own account) and much more

Ready to be part of something incredible? Contact:

alex@altioralegalgroup.co.uk