

Title: Criminal Defence Solicitor

Salary: £45,000-£65,000 + Benefits

Location: Nottingham

Working Pattern: Hybrid Working

Overview:

This role offers the opportunity to work on a diverse range of private Criminal Law matters. The firm's practice defends individuals and companies prosecuted by a wide range of authorities including: Police, CPS, SFO, HMRC, FCA, NCA, RSPCA and other regulated bodies.

Role Responsibilities:

- Conduct cases effectively and efficiently on behalf of clients in accordance with the Firm's policies and objectives
- Manage a varied caseload across multiple areas of Criminal Law
- Ensure all work is carried out to the highest professional standards
- Act for clients across the full spectrum of criminal legal matters, providing advice, preparation and representation at every stage
- Represent a wide variety of private paying clients in matters involving, Road Traffic Offences, Sexual Offences and Fraud Defence
- Handle Companies House prosecutions as well as matters involving Trading Standards, Environmental Health, BEIS & Health & Safety Investigations
- Pro-actively contribute to the development and promotion of the Firm's high standards and reputation
- Liaise with all Partners on specific firm-wide matters where required
- Participate in business development and promotion of the Firm's Criminal law services
- Work on complex sexual offences cases including internet-based offences and historical allegations
- Attend Police Stations and Courts nationwide to provide representation as required

Candidate experience and Skills:

- Qualified Solicitor with current practicing certificate - 7 years PQE minimum
- Proven experience of acting for clients in Criminal law cases
- Demonstrable track record of successful case outcomes
- Commitment to achieving the best outcomes for clients
- Passionate about criminal law and court advocacy
- Ability to work independently and as part of a specialist team
- Efficient time management and organisational skills

Firm Benefits:

- Competitive Salary
- Death in Service (x3 Salary), Private Medical Insurance & Generous Holiday Allowance
- The opportunity to work within a specialist Criminal Law team
- Training and support from the firm's experienced team of Criminal Law specialists with diverse backgrounds and legal knowledge
- A collaborative working environment that values expertise and client service
- Professional development opportunities
- Effective Case Management and Compliance Systems
- The chance to make a tangible difference in criminal defence, guiding clients through the complexities of the criminal justice system

To discuss this role further and find out more details, please contact:

alex@altioralegalgroup.co.uk or info@altioralegalgroup.co.uk